FAMILY TROVE FROM 150 YEARS & 4 GENERATIONS

R.T. Reese & his bride, Henrietta, arrived in Monona County, Iowa, in 1856. Before long they built the family home, & it has since been expanded & is still standing gracefully & protected in the hills overlooking the Little Sioux & the Missouri River Valleys. R.T., a settler, saddle maker, & farmer, also became a pioneer merchant & helped found the once-bustling town of Turin. The Reese property has been home to four generations of this family steeped in a tradition of care & preservation. After 154 years, its accumulation of antiques, collectibles, & vintage treasures will be auctioned.
